ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On October 3, 2013, at the combined Detention Hearing and Arraignment of Defendant, Ruben Mario Flores-Camacho, this Court considered the matter of his detention. Having considered the Pretrial Services Officer's recommendation of detention, the Defendant's waiver of a Detention Hearing and having confirmed that Flores-Camacho is presently subject to a detainer lodged against him by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency which currently provides for no bond, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Since Flores-Camacho presently has no legitimate claim to a liberty interest that would justify an immediate or meaningful detention determination under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), it is the ORDER of this Court that good cause exists to postpone the need for such a determination until such time as Flores-Camacho can maintain a legitimate liberty interest before this Court. See United States v. King, 818 F.2d 112, 114 (1st Cir. 1987). Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no need to make a detention determination at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Defendant, Ruben Mario Flores-Camacho, be, and is hereby, COMMITTED to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility.

It is further ORDERED that the Defendant, Ruben Mario Flores-Camacho, SHALL be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

It is further ORDERED that upon Order of a Court of the United States or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility SHALL deliver Ruben Mario Flores-Camacho to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

DONE at Galveston, Texas, this _____ 3rd _____ day of October, 2013.

United States Magistrate Judge
